

INDIAN COUNCIL OF HISTORICAL RESEARCH

The Indian Council of Historical Research, a premier institution in the field of historical studies, provides lead in fostering scientific research on all aspects of Indian History. A number of research projects are undertaken or sponsored every year and new findings are brought out in print. The Council has brought out many such publications. These publications fall broadly into the following four categories :

1. Publication of research works commissioned by the Council;
2. Publication of books on Indian History translated into various Indian languages;
3. Publication of works for which financial subsidy has been awarded by the Council; and
4. Publication of journals/periodicals.

The books published under the first category fulfil an objective of the Council to give source orientation to the understanding of history. As such, they include, among others, a number of volumes of Inscriptions of various dynasties; annotation and translation of notable Persian documents of the Medieval Period; Source volumes on National Movement, Peasant Movement, Trade Union Movement and Economic History; Volumes on the Role of Legislatures in the Freedom Struggle; Reprints of rare and out of print books of historical importance; and Monographs.

Under the Translation Scheme, about 80 books, originally written in English, have been translated into various regional languages. This is to facilitate scholars in different regions to have access to research books in their mother tongue. Many of these have been published and a few others are in the pipeline.

The Council has helped authors to publish a number of books under its Publication Subsidy Scheme. The majority of these are doctoral dissertations approved by the Council after rigorous scrutiny. These books are not listed in this catalogue.

The Council publishes two biannual journals titled. The Indian Historical Review and Itihas. As many 34 volumes of IHR (some double and some single), and four volumes of the Itihas have come out so far.

ICHR is also bringing out a newsletter (ICHR Newsletter) periodically reporting the activities and developments related to ICHR and its regional centres, and distributing its copies free of cost.

For all publications, please contract or write to the respective publishers.

Depending on availability the publications can also be had from the ICHR personally.

Alphabetically arranged address of publishers may be found at the end.
